REMARKS []

1. On 9 June 1952, a convoy, including buses [] each occupied by 30 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with motor transport insignia, trucks [] carrying billeting equipment, and sedan [] left the southern section of Stammlager Zossen (N 53/Z 91) in Wunsdorf-Zossen in the direction of the autobahn near Rangsdorf. [] rear detachments of the unit previously stationed there left the camp. On 10 June, [] sentries at the entrance had black-bordered crimson epaulets. Sedans [] entered the southern section of the camp. *

2. On 5 June, [] a building on the western edge of the Hindenburg Kaserne east of Highway No 96, Wunsdorf-Zossen, was surrounded by a board fence and was being renovated. Individual rooms had already been furnished with furniture which, according to inscriptions, came from the Sanssouci castle near Potsdam. Soldiers stated that this building was being furnished for General Chuikov. **

3. On 3 June, a number of Soviet officers appeared at the Luckenwalde (N 53/Z 90) postal office and asked to be informed on available connections and cable lines to the administrative academy in Forst Zinna north of Jueterbog. [] officers of the SCC in Berlin-Karlshorst and troop units stationed in Wunsdorf would be quartered in the administrative academy. Beginning 9 June, [] indications that the administrative academy would be vacated. ***

4. [] the Forst Zinna administrative academy would be transferred to Berlin-Karlshorst, while offices previously stationed in Karlshorst would move to Forst Zinna. ***

* Comment. On 22 May 1952, [] the southern section of Camp Zossen was vacated. [] the unit mentioned was a motor transport unit of the GORF.
